RHYTHM! DISCOVERY CENTER TO BE HONORED ON JUNE 7

INDY MUSEUM TO RECEIVE NUVO CULTURAL VISION “TRAILBLAZER” AWARD

INDIANAPOLIS (April 29, 2016) — This year, the NUVO Cultural Vision Awards will honor a total of 19 members of the Central Indiana community who are tirelessly working to make our state a better place to live.

Among our CVA “Trailblazer” winners in the field of MUSIC for 2016:

RHYTHM! DISCOVERY CENTER: With ambitious exhibits and a focus on interaction with visitors, the Rhythm! Discovery Center is the best percussive art museum in the world. And we’re not just saying that because it’s located right in the heart of Indianapolis.

Look for a profile of all of our honorees in the June 8 edition of NUVO.

Beginning in 1998 the Cultural Vision Awards have had at least two goals in mind. The first was to recognize individuals and organizations in this city doing innovative work. The NUVO Cultural Vision Awards are about shining a light on the talented people and creative enterprises. Our second goal for the awards can be summed up in a single word: community.

The awards will be presented on the evening of June 7, 2016 at the Indiana Landmarks Center, 1201 Central Ave., Indianapolis. We'll gather for cocktails and appetizers at 5 p.m., and the reception will be followed by a ceremony at 6 p.m.

About NUVO

For more than 25 years, NUVO — the name's a play on "new voices" — has been Indy's alternative voice. NUVO's mission statement is pretty simple: to empower intelligent, open-minded innovators through storytelling.

Indiana's largest independent alternative news organization, NUVO is created by and for people who love our community, our culture and our environment. NUVO's staff has been focused on the company's digital presence of late, and 2015 saw the unprecedented growth of NUVO.net. The publication's commitment to social justice and the environment has driven readership to new levels. NUVO strives to make its coverage of news, arts and cuisine as comprehensive as any outlet in Central Indiana, yet all of NUVO's content remains free in print and online.
